

Kampmann, Anders - Tenor

Biography

The Danish tenor Anders Kampmann studied at The Guildhall School of Music and Drama in London and at The Royal Academy of Music in Aarhus. He began his career performing baritone repertoire, but soon reshaped his instrument into a rich and sonorous tenor voice.

He has sung roles such as Sándor Barinkay in Der Zigeunerbaron by Johann Strauss at Theater Magdeburg, Canio in Leoncavallo's I Pagliacci, as well as Turiddu in Cavalleria Rusticana (Mascagni) at Elsinore Chamber Opera, the roles of Siegmund and Siegfried in The Ring in one Evening (music by Richard Wagner) on the same stage and the role of Prince Jennaro in Hartmann's Ravnen at Danish National Opera.

Anders is a frequent guest at The Royal Opera House in Copenhagen, where he has recently performed in Den Glade Enke 2.0 by Franz Lehar, King and Marshall (music by Heise) and Manualen by Louise Alenius. Anders is often appearing as a soloist in works such as Requiem (Verdi), Die Schöpfung (Haydn), The Messiah (Händel), Requiem (Mozart) and Messa di Gloria (Puccini). He has worked with an array of orchestras including Copenhagen Philharmonic Orchestra, Aarhus Symphony Orchestra, Odense Symphony Orchestra and Sønderjyllands Symphony Orchestra.

In season 2024/2025 Anders can be heard as Pinkerton in Madama Butterfly by Puccini and Count René de la Rochefocauld in Fête Galante by Schierbeck at Danish National Opera.
